

Q When you mention these times you mean Standard Time?

A Standard Time, yes.

Q You are pretty sure at any rate that it was after seventy-three Eastern Standard Time?

A Oh, yes, I know it was later than that.

Q I think that is sufficient if you can't remember as to that. That is good enough.

A You see, you take two weeks after a thing has occurred, it is pretty hard to remember.

Q How long were you together with Mr. Applegate and Mr. Stevens that night? A I had been with them before dark and I was with them after dark. Now, I don't know how long. I can't answer questions like that, but the last I saw of Mr. Stevens was when I left the beach, and I don't know what time it was. I presume it must have been nine o'clock.

Q Eastern Standard Time? A Yes.

Q How long did you see Mr. Stevens after the weighing of this fish? A Well, I wasn't around here very long after that. He went back fishing. He was fishing. He sat there (indicating). He had four bluefish and I don't think he had wound his line up yet when I left, but it wasn't so very long after the weighing of the fish. That is all I can say.
